Musical Cameos:

Great Composers and Well-Loved Masterworks

Beethoven, Schubert, Brahms, Liszt, and more!

"Her fingers give off sparks and she takes the keyboard into orbit."

- Budapest Sun

"Teresa Walters has a huge, rolling sound, and makes music like an eagle surveying the landscape. This highly gifted Lisztian took the music farther technically and spiritually by her transcendental performance."

- New York Concert Review

"Her Hands Create Cascades of Luminescence"

- The Washington Post

"Teresa Walters Holds Keys to Audience's Hearts"

- The Record

Teresa Walters is noted for her commitment to music as the ultimate universal language, and for her vision of music as ministry. She is equally at home in the world's major concert halls or in campus and community settings. She has performed on 6 continents, including such venues as Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center in New York, Wigmore Hall in London, the Salle Cortot in Paris, Moscow's Great Hall, Australia's International Conservatorium and Jerusalem's Concert Hall. Finally, her prestigious invitations to perform in honor of the 2011 Liszt Bicentennial included Copenhagen's Hungarian Embassy and Beijing's Forbidden City Concert Hall. With her vast repertoire, she has also performed at Vienna's Beethoven Festival and at Spanish Music festivals in Barcelona and Madrid.
