

CITY OF LOVELAND VISUAL ARTS COMMISSION

2012 ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND 2013 GOALS

DRAFT

Accomplishments for 2012

- 1) Five sculptures installed downtown for The Art Advocacy Project (TAAP) in May 2012
- 2) Twelve utility boxes painted for the 2012 Transformations Project
- 3) Acceptance and installation of the following generous donations:
 - a. Four bronze sculptures donated by the Loveland High Plains Arts Council for installation in Benson Sculpture Garden:
Equal to the Pain (by Robert Brubaker)
Natural Wonders II (by Michele Mousey Dale)
Time (by Carol Gold)
Pacific Giant (by Adam Schultz)
 - b. Triptych of Loveland Foothills (by Roy Wilce) donated by Home State Bank for the Rialto Theater Center
- 4) Multiple integrated artwork elements installed at the Rialto Theater Center (by artist David Griggs)
- 5) Purchase of the following sculptures for the Foundations: A Journey Through American Sculpture collection:
 - a. Hybrid Figure (by Richard Howard Hunt)
 - b. Woman Sitting on Bed (by George Segal)
 - c. Indian on Horseback (Alexander Phimster Proctor)
 - d. Wall Sculpture #7 II (by Herbert Ferber)
 - e. Herodias (by Reuben Nakian)
 - f. The Dance (by Chaim Gross)
- 6) Purchase of two TAAP sculptures:
 - a. Shout (by Jack Kreutzer and Doug Erion) installed in Thompson Park
 - b. Rolling Dancing Moon (by Reven Swanson) installed at the Chamber of Commerce/McWhinney-Hahn Sculpture Garden
- 7) Commission of integrated public artwork for the Mehaffey Park Project
- 8) Review and relocation (as needed) of 2-D artwork within City facilities

Goals for 2013

- 1) Expansion of The Art Advocacy Project (TAAP) to include two dimensional artwork at the Loveland Public Library and an additional monumental sculpture for downtown
- 2) Commission of 5 additional painted utility boxes for the Transformations Project
- 3) Commission of iconic, large-scale artwork installation for the I-25/Highway 34 Interchange
- 4) Commission of large-scale entryway artwork for the Loveland Service Center expansion project
- 5) Commission of artistic railing for the Madison Avenue Underpass project
- 6) Commission of artwork for Fire Station #6 expansion
- 7) Ongoing maintenance of the City's public art collection
- 8) Continue to work on the Foundations: A Journey Through American Sculpture collection
- 9) Work to improve artist/public outreach