STUDY SESSION AGENDA

1. POLICE   (presenters: Captain Tim Brown, Tree Ablao, Judge Bill Starks and Susanne Durkin-Schindler; 60 min)
    RESTORATIVE JUSTICE AND TEEN COURT
    Council has asked for information regarding youth offender programs, specifically Restorative Justice and Teen Court, to assist youth in the community who have, or are alleged to have, committed state law or ordinance violations. This presentation will provide Council with information regarding current available programs in the community, as well as information regarding the opportunity to partner with the School District and the Restorative Justice Community Council.

2. ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT   (presenters: Betsey Hale and representatives from Water Valley, McWhinney and Sylvan Dale; 60 min)
    GO NOCO REGIONAL TOURISM AUTHORITY APPLICATION
    This is a presentation from the Economic Development Department and three private landowners and developers related to a Northern Colorado Regional Tourism Act application (RTA). This is a discussion only item, but staff will be making a request for financial support for the development of the RTA application to the State of Colorado Economic Development Commission. The State of Colorado RTA Fact Sheet is included as an attachment to this report. Staff is recommending Council consider a request for $50,000 of Lodging Tax Reserves and $125,000 of Economic Development Incentive Funds, at a future meeting.
