Review Minutes and Agenda

- Corrections to Minutes from February 2- Ali was not at meeting
- Additions to Agenda for March 2- Add Logan's discussion for city council meeting

Official business:

- CFAC- no information
- Bike and Pedestrian- 35 page draft in the works to present to city council
- City Council meeting- Logan attended study session, where city council reviewed proposal for glass manufacturer that would bring 15 new jobs. Discussed fire committee progress report
- Innovation lab report- Erica went to two meetings, both focusing around a student who built electronics and video games. Brought up concern about whether the innovation labs are relevant to YAC

Other business:

- Robert's Rules of Order- in response to an uncertainty in YAC concerning motions at the February 2nd meeting, Jenni reviewed the standard process of presenting and voting on motions
- Innovation lab meeting requirement- In order to pass motion about innovation labs being a requirement for YAC meetings, YAC needs more information from Aimee
- Recruitment meeting April 6th- Everybody needs to bring at least one guest
- Global youth service project- Is YAC interested in doing something such as meals on wheels or the humane society?

-RH March article--Emily

-Summer YAC dates

*Cherry Pie Festival, July 23rd, 3-9

*Wild West, August 12th, all day

*Battle of the Bands, August 4th, different setup this year, at foot lagoon

*Pastels on 5th, September 10th, 9-3

*Backpack stuffing, August

*Retreat at North Lake Part, August

Action Items:

-Group to read hand out on Robert's Rules of Order

-Need to get more info from Aimee regarding Innovation Lab meetings

-Recruitment meeting April 6th- Everybody needs to bring at least one guest

- Jenni will do some more research on Global youth service project

- Group needs to give Jenni a list of the outside meetings they have attended by May 1
