COLORADO HAZARD MAPPING PROGRAM (CHAMP) PROPOSED FLOODPLAIN CHANGES

TECHNICAL COMMENTS OR QUESTIONS?

The Colorado Water Conservation Board (CWCB) is the lead agency coordinating CHAMP, which is intended to prepare updated hazard mapping information for the rivers and streams most affected by the September 2013 flooding.

| Technical Comments/Questions:   | Date:  |
|---|--|
|   |  |
|   |  |
|   |  |
|   |  |
|   |  |
|   |  |
|   |  |
|   |  |
|   |  |
|   |  |
|   |  |
| Would you like us to call you to discuss your technical comment ☐ Yes ☐ No  | nts/questions?                                       |
| If so, please leave your contact information below.   |  |
| Name:   |  |
| Phone and/or Email:   |  |
| This form can be emailed or mailed to the following:  |  |
| City of Loveland – Kevin Gingery, kevin.gingery@cityoflovelandAttn: Kevin Gingery, City of Loveland, Public Works Dept., 2525 | Lorg 5 W. 1 st Street, Loveland, CO 80537 |

Unincorporated Larimer County – Devin Traff, traffdc@larimer.org or Tina Kurtz, tkurtz@larimer.org Attn: Larimer County Engineering Department, P.O. Box 1190, Fort Collins, CO 80522-1190.